

There is so much to see and do at Osborne House, come rain or shine

SWISS COTTAGE

Explore this chalet built for the royal children, with its child-sized furniture and working kitchen appliances.

SWISS COTTAGE GARDEN

The princes and princesses each had their own flower and vegetable plots and garden tools.

THE SWISS COTTAGE MUSEUM AND VICTORIA FORT

Step inside and discover the intriguing objects collected by the royal children. See also the fort where the young princes played.

JOHN BROWN'S WALK

Follow in the footsteps of Queen Victoria's famous servant.

TERRACE RESTAURANT AND ORANGERY

Waitress service restaurant serving lunches, morning coffee and afternoon tea, with views over the terrace gardens.

TERRACE GARDENS

THE PAVILION

The private family rooms, including nursery, Prince Consort's bathroom and dressing and writing room, Queen's sitting room and bedroom.

PETTY OFFICERS QUARTERS

Introductory exhibition, café serving light refreshments and lunches, extensive shop, ticketing and membership sales.

ROYAL APARTMENTS

Walk through the Grand Corridor, Council Room, Audience Room, Drawing and Dining Rooms and Durbar Wing.

DURBAR WING

Evoking a sense of India as experienced by Queen Victoria.

SOMETHING WORTH TALKING ABOUT

Look out for native red squirrels as you wander through the grounds.

VICTORIAN WALLED GARDEN

A fruit and flower garden with triumphal arches of Victoria plums and hot houses filled with exotic plants.

