This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debit. If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, The English Heritage Trust will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request The English Heritage Trust to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of your request. If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit by The English Heritage Trust or your bank or buliding society you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society. If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when The English Heritage Trust asks you to. You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.

Gift Aid legislation allows The English Heritage Trust to reclaim basic rate tax on your donation at no extra cost to yourself. For every £1 you donate, we receive an extra 25p.

I have ticked the box and I wish The English Heritage Trust to further benefit from Gift Aid legislation. I confirm I am a UK taxpayer and have paid or will pay an amount of Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax that is at least equal to the amount reclaimed on ALL my Gift Aid donations (not just to The English Heritage Trust) for each tax year. I understand that other taxes such as VAT and Council Tax do not qualify. This declaration applies to all eligible membership subscriptions/donations I have made during the last 4-year period and until further notice.
