

Victorian Farm at Boscobel House

What's on today

Explore the grounds of Boscobel House where you will find characters from the past demonstrating the crafts and skills of the Victorian era.

Watch our travelling blacksmith working at the forge, making the bits and pieces, that kept a Victorian farm running.

See how corn dollies were made at harvest time to bring good luck for the next year of crops.

Visit the woodworker to see traditional hurdles being made.

Enjoy the smells of freshly baked bread and cakes which would have kept the workers going after a day on the farm.

Hear from the country doctor about some of the ailments faced on the farm and the Victorian remedies.

Try your hand at horseshoe tossing, hoopla, ball in bucket and the coconut shy as we celebrate all things Victorian!
