

Time	Main Arena	Falconry Arena & Family Zone	Living History Camp & Lawn Quarters
10:00 – 10:15	Interval	Interval	Medieval Music Listen to Sound of Time’s Majestic Medieval Music as they welcome you to Wrest Park.
10:15 – 10:30		Wizzos Riproaring History presents ‘Colonel Blood’s Big Blag!’ The dastardly story of 17th-century Colonel William Blood and his incredible plan to steal the crown jewels from the King himself!	Interval
10:30 – 10:45
10:45 – 11:00
11:00 – 11:15	The Troop presents... an exciting battle between the Rebel soldiers of the Duke of Monmouth and the Redcoat troops of King James II. With the crash of muskets and galloping cavalry, who will you cheer for? The King or the Rebels? After the Battle follow the Redcoat troops to their encampment to discover the fate of any Rebels who fall into Royal hands.	Meet St. George Head to the Orangery to meet the mighty St George.	Preparing for St.George Meet members of the Mummers troop as they rehearse for their production of ‘The Legend of St George’. There are two weeks to go before the first performance and the actors are learning their lines and practising their moves, but things aren’t going too well. Can you offer the actors some direction and encouragement and save the show?
11:15 – 11:30
11:30 – 11:45	Meet the Horses Take the opportunity to meet the horses and riders at the nearby ‘Pat the Pony’ arena.	Falconry of the Early Plantagenet Kings The story of our medieval monarchs and their many adventures in the hunting field, told through the graceful flight of hawks and falcons.	A school for fools A skip and a dance through history highlighting some of the most important fools to have ever graced us with their presence.
11:45 – 12:00	Interval
12:00 – 12:15	To Challenge a Knight A mysterious knight attempts to distract St George from his quest by challenging him to a joust! Should our hero accept? Make sure you come along to cheer our mighty hero on!	bZents presents...Dastardly Dick or Righteous Richard? Was King Richard III a hero or a villain? A light-hearted investigation into the controversy in this interactive performance.	Arming the Knight Head to the medieval living history camp to hear how a knight is armed at his ease, including the truths and myths of arms and armour.
12:15 – 12:30
12:30 – 12:45	Interval	The Smallest Cavalier Be amazed by the true story of Jeffrey Hudson, the smallest man ever to have lived in Britain, and his incredible life during the turbulent years of the 17th century. He’s short on height but not adventure!	Interval
12:45 – 13:00
13:00 – 13:15
13:15 – 13:30	The Silver Arrow Competition Who will be the greatest archer of the day?	Interval	Medieval Music Meet the King’s Minstrels who will show you some of the roles that they would have had in medieval times. Participatory singing and dancing is highly likely.
13:30 – 13:45		Falconry of the Early Plantagenet Kings The story of our medieval monarchs and their many adventures in the hunting field, told through the graceful flight of hawks and falcons.
13:45 – 14:00			Napple on the numbskull Come and watch our fool build a Cat-apple-ult. Flying projectiles, stilts, fire and very little practice.
14:00 – 14:15		Interval	Preparing for St. George Meet members of the Mummers troop as they rehearse for their production of ‘The Legend of St George’. There are two weeks to go before the first performance and the actors are learning their lines and practising their moves, but things aren’t going too well. Can you offer the actors some direction and encouragement and save the show?
14:15 – 14:30		Meet St. George Head to the Orangery to meet the mighty St George.
14:30 – 14:45	The Troop presents... an exciting battle between the Rebel soldiers of the Duke of Monmouth and the Redcoat troops of King James II. With the crash of muskets and galloping cavalry, who will you cheer for? The King or the Rebels? After the Battle follow the Redcoat troops to their encampment to discover the fate of any Rebels who fall into Royal hands.	bZents presents...Robin Hood and the Silver Arrow Outlaws Wanted! Join this exciting adventure as a young Robin Hood rises to the top of a band of outlaws living in Sherwood Forest. Become part of his merry band in this interactive performance.	Medieval Music During the time of Lent Minstrels would go to Minstrel School! Come back to school with ‘Sounds of Time’ to learn more about Minstrelling and their preparation for the big St George’s Day Pageant.
14:45 – 15:00
15:00 – 15:15	Meet the Horses Take the opportunity to meet the horses and riders at the nearby ‘Pat the Pony’ arena.	Wizzos Riproaring History presents ‘Colonel Blood’s Big Blag!’ The dastardly story of 17th-century Colonel William Blood and his incredible plan to steal the crown jewels from the King himself!	Foot Tourney Come and see a medieval foot tourney; where knights show off their military might, display their chivalrous qualities and possibly win both riches and glory?
15:15 – 15:30
15:30 – 15:45	Interval	Falconry of the Early Plantagenet Kings The story of our medieval monarchs and their many adventures in the hunting field, told through the graceful flight of hawks and falcons.	Tom’s Sharp (Half) Wit! Tom Fool is let loose in public with a sword...what could possibly go wrong?
15:45 – 16:00
16:00 – 16:15
16:15 – 16:30	The Pageant of St. George Join us for a story about a proper hero, by witnessing the townspeople perform the Pageant of the Dragon. Before your eyes, they will recreate the scene – the joy of Lady Katharine’s birthday celebrations, the skill of the knights who sought her hand, and the arrival of the hideous beast that spoiled it for everyone, until..... well, you’ll just have to come and see!	Interval	Interval
16:30 – 16:45
THROUGHOUT THE DAY	Visit the living history encampments throughout the day to soak up the sounds, sights, and smells of times gone by. Try your hand at becoming a knight in our sword school, come and have a go at our heritage games, and make sure to keep your eyes peeled for the recruiting Sergeant and his squad of Redcoats. Don’t forget to also join Raphael Historic Falconry at the Bowling Green Arena for tales of royal falconry during the reigns of Plantagenet kings Henry II to Edward I. Watch magnificent hawks and falcons in flight and discover the skills, structure, and social importance of this once thoroughly regal pursuit!		