Medieval Season at Framlingham Castle

Saturday 20 June – Sunday 1 September
10am – 5pm

Join us at Framlingham Castle during the summer holidays to learn what life was like in medieval times. From calligraphy to medieval archaeology, and rulers to peasants there will be different activities each week for children to take part in.

This week:

You are invited to learn how to write like they did in the medieval period with Happening History! Join us throughout the day and have a go at using a medieval quill pen and try to copy some gothic script.

For those who are younger, you can have a go at colouring in a dragon like the ones found in medieval manuscripts!

Take a break from the quill and ink and listen to Happening History's talk on marvellous medieval beasts and the creatures found in medieval manuscripts at:

11am, 1pm and 3pm

Children must be always accompanied by an adult
