PENDENNIS CASTLE

KASTEL PENNDINAS

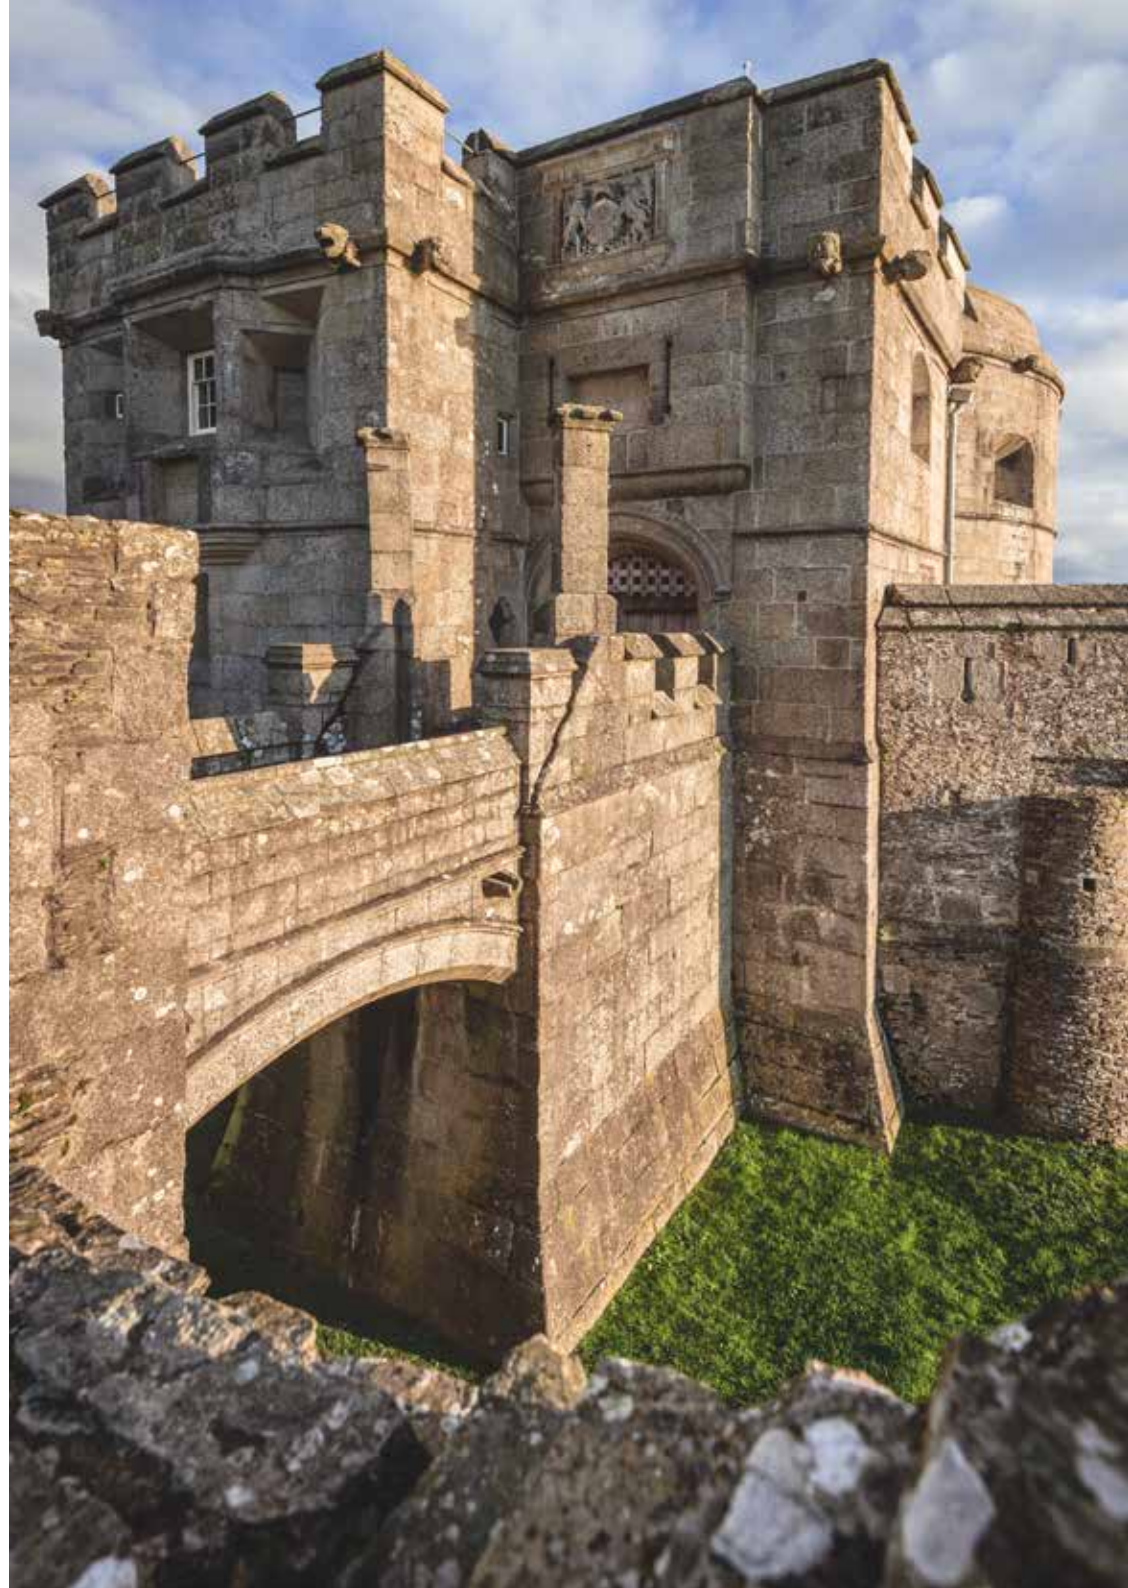

MAKE YOUR EVENT
HISTORIC

MEETINGS • CONFERENCES • RECEPTIONS

A DRAMATIC VENUE

Standing proudly on a headland just outside Falmouth, Pendennis Castle has guarded the Cornish coast for over 400 years. Originally a Tudor fortress, adapted over the years to defend the shores it overlooks, it's a venue which mixes far-reaching heritage with far-reaching views to spectacular effect.

All of which can be enjoyed by you and your guests, whether in the heart of the castle surrounded by atmospheric stone walls, warm wooden floors and even a royal coat of arms or inside the rooms of the Edwardian barracks – newly refurbished to the highest standard, accessible and versatile. And the castle, with its backdrop of blue sea, also provides a beautiful setting for outdoor events.

IDEAL FOR ENTERTAINING

SOMETHING DIFFERENT

Wherever you choose to hold your event in this spectacular coastal castle, you'll be within touching distance of hundreds of years of history – connecting you to Tudor royalty and Second World War servicemen. The Noonday Gun (fired daily April to end of October) adds a delightful quirk to events and we're happy to arrange a private tour for your guests.

PRIME POSITION

Pendennis is a location that will sweep your guests away. The headland thrusts out into the sea like a ship about to set sail. The rocks rise into woodland which in turn fringe expansive grass lawns. Crowning it all is the castle itself. It's an ideal stage for events of every scale.

MAKE IT YOURS

The newly refurbished interior of the Royal Artillery Barracks provides a wonderful contrast to the classic stone walls of the castle keep. Whether you desire full-scale production or elegant simplicity, Pendennis Castle is the perfect blank canvas for your event.

ATMOSPHERIC EVENT SPACES

CASTLE KEEP: LOWER GUN ROOM & CHEMISE

Drinks: 120

Crossing a stone bridge, guests enter the castle keep through an arched doorway with a heavy wooden door and portcullis, topped by the Tudor royal coat of arms. Inside, the unusual octagonal shape of the Lower Gun Room with its thick granite walls and warm wooden flooring, provides a charismatic setting for drinks and canapés.

The circular grassy ramparts around the Keep, known as the Chemise, offer breath-taking views for drinks receptions in warmer weather.

ROYAL ARTILLERY BARRACKS

Originally built in 1901 to house the Royal Garrison Artillery the barracks are now converted into a smart self-contained hospitality suite, with its own private reception area – ideal for guest registration. There are three bright event spaces, all accessible and with hearing loops.

THE KILLIGREW ROOM

Dinner & Dancing: 80 | Dining: 120 | Drinks: 180 | Conference: 100

The largest of the three rooms and beautifully refurbished with plenty of natural light, it's especially suited to banqueting events or daytime conferences.

For larger events requiring additional breakout or refreshment rooms, we can offer the Melvill and Arundell rooms. For evening events, they all work equally well as bar, dancing and chill out areas.

THE MELVILL ROOM

Dining: 50 | Drinks: 60 | Conference: 60 | Meeting: 22

This bright airy room has spectacular sea views on three sides and is our most popular choice for board meetings.

It also works well for evening meals and drinks.

THE ARUNDELL ROOM

Dining: 50 | Dancing: 60 | Conference: 60 | Meeting: 26

This versatile space is great for meetings, dinners, workshops and networking events and offers views over the beaches of Falmouth.

MARQUEES

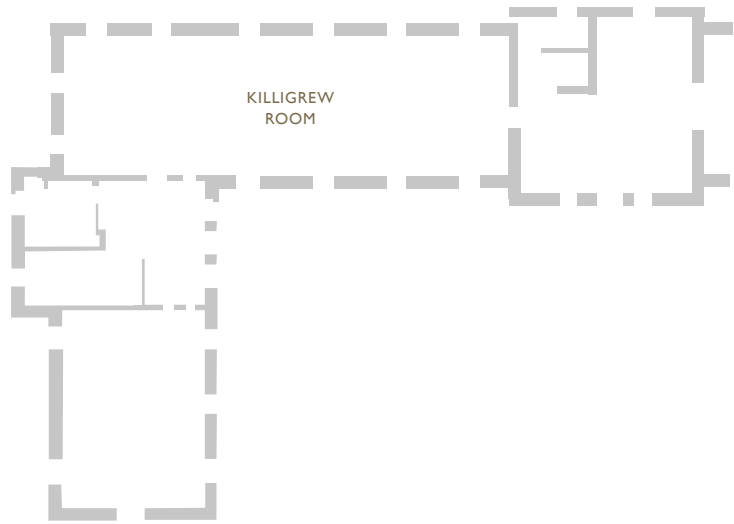

Dinner & Dancing: 1,000 | Dining: 1,500 | Drinks: 2,000 | Conference: 1,500

A large lawn provides ample room for marquee events on a grander scale, set against the spectacular backdrop of the floodlit castle.
